by Hon^r Mc Donnell, Sp^l Asst Comm^r Doug. Duty in the Dewans office on the question of grant of Special permanent Advances for "Secret Service" and the powers of the Excise Comm^r to pay "Rewards" to Govt Servants for "good Service" 4501-2 9/9/84 6218 9/11/93

J.G. to Mr Gillan 8/9/11/93

The whole question of granting permanent Advances for "Secret Service" appears to have been entirely misunderstood.

2 The case of the Special Asst to Comm^r was exceptional. He was placed in special direct charge of the whole Detective staff & 10 Asst Supervisors with the powers of a Dy Comm^r. and had upwards of 50 Cases on hand. He held Rs 15/- out of the permanent Advance of the Excise Comrs for "Sadirwar Charges" and it was utterly inadequate

to meet claims in the Date Line. He was therefore granted a Special per -manent advance of Rs 10/-
the latter and accounted for it separately under the Code as other Dy Comrs did -

3 I put up two Extracts from the Civil Account
Code 5th Edition Arts 772
Rule 1 of Art 78

4 All that is required
is for the Dy Comrs to make small Advances under
"Secret Service" on requisition

in the Excise Deptt or in the Rev: Police, Octroi & other Deptts provided such officers

are bonafide invested with powers of "Excise officers" under the Excise Act. This is provided for in the Civil Account Code (Vide Extracts) Sec 78.

4 The Comptr will charge such Expenditure in common with other items to the appropriate head of the Budget, when he audits the bills sent in monthly, by the Dy Comrs. All permanent advances specially made for Excise Purposes should be recalled & cancelled. Should any Dy Comrs deem the ordinary permanent advance assigned to him inadequate for his District the Code provides for its being enhanced. This will not be necessary so far as the Excise Depts go at present for Detection now is, as I anticipated, at a dead lock — 3 cases in 6 months by 10 Asst Supervisors !!!

5 As regards the grant of "Rewards" for "good Service" in the Excise Dept, this is rendered supererogatory now as they have been regularly allowed periodically, a bonus of 3 months pay and it must be under very exceptional circumstances indeed, that a further special case can be made out; and, this, I submit should be referred to Govt for sanction with the rank, pay, service and a summary of the grounds for such a boon being awarded.

6. The case of the Police bears no analogy to that of the Excise - except when an Excise Officer is granted a reward by the Magistrate and the fine which is to be paid is not in full it cannot be realized. Then the Excise Comr may authorize the

the payment there of and remit it from the allotment for "Secret Service" This is practically what is done by me when Excise Asst Comrs.

7 The cases detected by Excise officers, other than those in the Excise Deptt itself, the Excise Comrs
may be authorized to grant small rewards
upto Rs 50/- provided the Magistrate has omitted
to do so, and such a depart
-ure is deemed advisable
as an encouragement to men in other Deptts of the Public Service, who have really gone out of their way to actually detect and when they have turned up accidentally in discharging

the duties devolving on them in their own Deptts.

77 To an Officer incurring petty expenses which require to be paid at once before money can be obtained on a contingent bill, a permanent advance is allowed which is in general (1) single for the whole Office, or a District Officer is not allowed one advance for Land Rev, a second for Excise, and so on but only a lump advance which is held by the Accountant General at his personal credit

78. 1- Care should be taken not to multiply permanent advances unnecessarily. An Officer having subordinates who require petty sums should rather spare a small portion of his own advance for their use than apply for separate advances for them, taking acknowledgments from them in the same way as he himself furnishes the Account Current and retaining them in his Office.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the MahaRajah of Mysore (Financial).

Read:— Correspondence ending with letter No. 2721/302 dated 18th March 1893,— from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, regarding his powers of sanctioning expenditure under "Rewards for food Service".

Read also:— Inspector General's letter No. 1689/179 dated 18th November 1893, on the same subject.

Order thereon, No. 15858-8½ / J.F. 371-92

Dated Bangalore, 19th/22nd March 1894.

The Inspector General of Police represents that the standing orders under which all expenditure under "Rewards for food Service" require the sanction

Sanction of Government, involve unnecessary Correspondence and request that he may be empowered to sanction such rewards within certain limits without reference to Government.

In supersession of previous orders on the subject contained in the marginally noted proceedings, the Government are pleased to authorise the Inspector General of Police in Mysore to pay without the previous sanction of Government rewards for good service in his Department to the Police or others to the extent of Rs 50/- in each case, within the amount of the Budget grant under "Rewards for good service", a statement shewing detailed particulars of such payments to being submitted to Government once in a quarter.

Enclosure Draft Notification 12 7

Under the provisions of Section 55 of the Excise act XXII (Clause (8)) of 1881, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja make the following rules in regard to the grant of rewards:—

(1, 1850)

1 Any magistrate convicting an offender of an offence under Sections 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41 or 43 of the Excise act, may forthwith grant in such proportions as he thinks fit, to any person or persons who have contributed to the conviction of the offender a reward

(1) not exceeding the amount of the fine, if any, imposed;

(2) not exceeding the amount realized by the disposal of the articles confiscated as laid down in Rule XXXVII in Part III of Government Notification No 495, dated 30th March 1892;

(3) If no fine is imposed by the magistrate convicting an offender, or if no reward is granted by such magistrate to the person or persons who have contributed to the conviction of the offender, the Excise Commissioner may grant a reward departmentally, not exceeding Rupees fifty.
